Dear Mr. Pierce:

Thank you for inviting Director Casey to the Business Week Corporate Planning 100 CEO reception and dinner 12 September on Capitol Hill.

Mr. Casey has asked me to extend his regrets. Due to tentative travel plans and a full schedule of official duties, he must decline the honor.

Sincerely,

George V. Lauder
Director, Public Affairs

Dear Mr. Casey:

On the evening of September 12, Business Week Corporate Planning 100 will sponsor a black tie reception and dinner for the Chief Executive Officers and senior corporate planners from CP100 member corporations. A current list of attendees is enclosed for your review. We have scheduled this event so that members of Business Week Corporate Planning 100 and their CEOs can jointly assess the election's effect on American business.

We would be honored to have you among our distinguished guests at this function. Senior representatives from both Presidential campaigns will be invited to attend a reception from 5:30 to 7:00 p.m. in the Hugh Scott Room in the U.S. Capitol Building, followed by dinner in the Mike Mansfield Room. The keynote address will be provided by Lewis H. Young, Business Week's Editor in Chief.

We hope that you will seriously consider attending this unique and important forum, and look forward to hearing from you in the near future.

Kind regards,

James R. Pierce
Senior Vice President-Publisher
